Greetings,

For those of you who were able to attend the Harvesting Gratitude event last Friday, thank you for joining us! For those who were unable to attend, I'm sorry we missed you. We had a wonderful time seeing old friends and new faces, and showcasing the impactful work you help make happen at UC Davis.

I feel so lucky to be part of a community where, together, we can get through anything. The last few years have been no exception, and we are so glad to include you among our friends and supporters who have enabled UC Davis to thrive. I hope you enjoy this short film about our excitement to be powering up again—and how you helped us all along the way.

We could not be more grateful for your support.

Kind regards,

Shaun B. Keister, Ph.D.
